

The background of the entire image is an abstract, flowing pattern of colors. On the left side, there are vibrant blue and purple flames that appear to be rising and swirling. On the right side, there are bright orange and yellow flames, also swirling and rising. The overall effect is that of a fire being baptized in water, with the blue representing the water and the orange representing the fire. The text is overlaid on this background.

Kids at Highland: Welcome! Keep your little ones with you in worship, or feel free to use our nursery for 0 - 4 year-olds located in Rooms 107 & 108. Coloring tables for fidgety kids are available throughout the service near the screen.

Youth tonight: Join us 5 - 7 PM for dinner and youth group. We're starting our new series Change. Come seek change in the world and in your own heart by turning to God in prayer.

Wednesday Nights: Join us for supper at 5:45 PM. Spring meal passes and weekly reservations are available now at highlandumc.org/Wednesday-nights.

Bach Festival: Join us next Sunday, January 20, at 4 PM in the Sanctuary for a musical celebration featuring choral and instrumental groups from Highland and our community and pieces performed on organ, harpsichord, and strings.

Hammer time! Sign-up to help work on our Habitat for Humanity house beginning February 9, no experience required and jobs for all skill levels. Find all the details at highlandumc.org/serve/habitat.

Disaster Relief Training: Learn how to be among the first volunteers equipped to go in to areas hit by hurricanes and other natural disasters. Join us at Highland on Saturday, January 26, for a full-day training. Find details and registration information at highlandumc.org/serve.

Listen, Think, Respond: Listen for the word covenant. Think about the promises you made at your baptism and confirmation, and when your children were baptized. Respond by renewing your commitment to serve Christ, through Highland UMC, with your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness.
